

DM50/55™ digital franking machine

Send professional quality mail the simple way.

Now, it's easy to manage all your mailing needs.

Engineered with a built-in scale, the DM50/55 Series digital franking machine is ideal for small businesses and home offices that send upwards of five letters or parcels every day. It's designed to simplify how you calculate the exact postage every time. You'll benefit from greater convenience, efficiency and savings with every mail piece you send.

Save on virtually every mailing.

Using a franking machine qualifies you for exclusive An Post postage discounts. Plus, the 2.5 kg integrated scale automatically calculates exact postage, potentially saving you up to 20% every time you send.

Eliminate the need for stamps.

With the DM50/55, refilling your postage is simple. That means no more trips to the Post Office for stamps.

Send with greater efficiency.

With Pitney Bowes unique IntelliLink® software, update postage rates automatically whenever they change—and download envelope messaging with ease.

Improve your brand image.

Create your own messages on every envelope using the text entry facility (DM55 only). You can also download custom-made graphics to give your business a professional image.

Improve the way your business sends mail.

With the DM50/55, your business will benefit from:

- An integrated scale that calculates the correct postage virtually every time. That means you'll never have to guess or overpay again.
- The ability to frank mail for all envelopes and package sizes directly from your office.
- Access to all An Post and overseas postage rates at the touch of a button.
- A professional image for your business—with five pre-loaded envelope-messaging designs included.
- Secure postage funds, protected by a unique PIN code.

Take advantage of these optional features*:

- Accounting facility to enable you to track postage by department.
- Date and time-stamp incoming mail.
- Add personalized messages to every letter via text entry.
- Weigh mail manually, and enter common weights for exact postage costs.

*Additional charges will apply
